Minister Effectively . . .

Dr. J. L. Cook

...in the local church...

North Carolina College of Theology will ignite in you a passion for God's heart, for His people, and for His Kingdom. The book of James says that faith, if it has no works, is dead. Therefore, it is important to combine passion with practical knowledge in order to minister productively and be a blessing to others.

Students at NCCT are trained and equipped to step out in faith and engage in practical ministry with the guidance, support, and feedback of the faculty. With quality Biblical education and practical application, students receive the tools necessary to enhance every facet of ministry within the local church and beyond. At NCCT, we believe it is an honor to serve the Lord and His people. Therefore, students are taught to become effective ministers and church leaders who serve the Body of Christ with humility, power, and love.

I Corinthians 2:4-5

And my speech and my preaching were not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, that your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.

...in the world...

We believe God's heart is to establish His Kingdom throughout the whole earth. Therefore, NCCT students are given the exciting opportunity to travel to other nations to minister to the practical and spiritual needs of people in a culture different from their own.

Students, who choose to participate, serve alongside local pastors, preach and teach in a variety of settings such as home groups, conferences, and local church congregations, and assist in practical benevolent projects for orphans, widows, the homeless and the poor.

In addition to experiencing the joy of being a blessing to others, past students testify that the NCCT mission opportunity was a pivotal time in which they were challenged in numerous areas of their own lives. Many also testify that the Holy Spirit released in them an increase of boldness to preach the Word of God with power and a greater depth of compassion for the world.

You are destined for greatness...Thank you for considering NCCT.

Habakkuk 2:4

Behold...his soul, which is lifted up, is not upright in him; but the just shall live by his faith.

Dr. J. L. Cook, Ph.D.
Founder

From the President:

Dr. Judy Cook

Be a Life-Long Learner!

Being an educator in public education for 29 years I know the value of learning. I shared with my students daily that we should never stop learning because once we do life loses it's zeal.

As a Christian, learning God's Word is exactly the same. Our lives would lose all meaning if His precious Word were not being learned everyday. The wonderful part of this is that a scripture that we read as a young adult has a completely different meaning, as we get older. That is why we should continue learning as long as we have breath.

At NCCT we promote a Christ-Centered learning curriculum. Our programs, Associate, Bachelor, Graduate, Master and Doctoral, give the learner the opportunity to endeavor into God's Word with boldness. We provide study guides along with scriptural questions that enable the student to fully comprehend the Bible.

John 1:1

In the beginning was the Word,
and the Word was with God,
and the Word was God.

Through study, prayer and worship, you will know God in a more intimate way. The Word is God and knowing His Word allows you to know Him better. That is our goal at NCCT. And once you know His Word then you can spread it to the world.

Your life will change as you grow in the Word and become closer to Him. We are changing the world one student at a time.

Thank you for choosing NCCT...you will not regret it. Together we can send a light into this dark world that will be a guide for others to find Christ.

North Carolina College of Theology Administrative Policies

Our Program Basis

It is the purpose of the North Carolina College of Theology (Administration / Main Campus) to provide continued education programs to students who are unable to attend full-time classes on the Main Campus. This can be accomplished through our external studies program. We believe that we offer the finest Christian education available in a streamlined fashion.

We have purposely abbreviated our requirements for graduate and post-graduate degrees in an effort to hold the tuition to a minimum and allow the busy minister ample time to complete his or her desired field of study. Our experienced staff and faculty have labored untiringly over textbooks and materials, separating arduous minor information from major academic information. We believe that upon review of the various programs, students will see we have streamlined the supporting areas of study by offering the same necessary information in condensed version for less reading and research of materials. It is our position that the same information can be obtained and retained by reading one book rather than three, provided it is the right book.

What We Believe

We are a fundamental, evangelical, Bible-believing school based upon canonized Old Testament and New Testament scripture as the inerrant and infallible Word of God. We accept that the Bible is God's instruction manual for life, and it is not open to any single or denominational interpretation but is written to all mankind.

It is our belief that God created the earth and the universe in six literal days and that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, born of a virgin. We believe that Jesus died on the cross at Calvary, arose from the dead three days later, and now sits at the right hand of God as our High Priest. We believe that those who have been born-again through the blood of Jesus Christ will reign in Heaven for eternity. Finally, we believe that non-believers will be sentenced to a burning hell for all eternity.

Staff and Faculty

Any corporation, institution, or government is only as good as its people, and they are its most valuable asset. The North Carolina College of Theology has been richly blessed with quality staff and faculty. From the office of its president to the administrators and professors, you will find each individual ready and willing to assist every request. Our people are dedicated and loyal to the task of promoting God's Kingdom through quality Biblical education.

Curriculum and Reference Materials

The North Carolina College of Theology seeks to offer the highest quality curriculum and reference materials. Resources are subject to change, at the discretion of the Executive Board of Directors, and not all subjects are offered every year

Student Nondiscrimination Policy

The North Carolina College of Theology admits students of any race, color, national or ethnic origin with all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students of NCCT. The North Carolina College of Theology does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin in administration of its policies, loan programs, or other school administered programs.

Statement of Standards

All students are required to give a testimony of having accepted Jesus Christ as their personal Savior and Lord. Each student is expected to conduct himself/herself in a manner that will, at no time, bring reproach upon our Savior or upon NCCT.

All students must be a working part of a local church. Time spent in participation within the local church will be logged and turned in to the North Carolina College of Theology. These hours are figured into the student's semester credit hours as personal ministry. God's Word demands that we be doers of the Word and not hearers (or students) only.

Application Fee and Tuition

A non-refundable application fee of $60.00 must accompany all applications. Upon approval of application, one-third of tuition, plus cost of textbooks, is due at REGISTRATION. Please note that NO textbooks will be released without pre-payment! Remaining balance of tuition and other applicable fees MUST be paid in full by April 15th of each school year. A 10% discount will be applied for all full prepayment tuitions. Any transferred or life-earned credits will be assessed at $2.00 per credit hour.

Life-Earned Credits

The North Carolina College of Theology recognizes life-learning experience and will issue credit for such experience. However, such credit must be determined by NCCT Administration / Department Head at the candidate's evaluation process.

Transferred Credits

The North Carolina College of Theology reserves the right to allow, or not to allow, credits earned at other institutions for similar courses taken at that institution. If credit is awarded, the candidate will be assessed $2.00 per credit hour. These hours may not exceed 60% of the required hours for graduation from the North Carolina College of Theology.

Application for Advanced Standing

Simply enclose all of the information requested on the enrollment application, along with the appropriate fees. Make your check payable to and mail to the North Carolina College of Theology. You will be given a detailed report of your advanced standing in the degree program of your choice.

Refund Policy

Students may change or drop a program at any time during the first week after notification of their acceptance into the North Carolina College of Theology. When a program is dropped or withdrawn from and no substitute is taken, a 10% refund will be made, upon request. No refunds are given for Book Fees. A

North Carolina College of Theology Accreditation

If the sole purpose of needing an education is for the Gospel ministry or related field within Christian ministry, secular accreditation is not necessary or required. All Christian churches accept quality Christian education regardless to which accreditation group, if any, the referenced institution belongs. If study is for purpose other than ministry, such as business administrator, engineer, lawyer, etc., students should apply to an institution that belongs to a regional accrediting association. In secular education, regional accreditation is essential! For education of those in Christian service, secular accreditation does little more than typically make the tuition beyond the reach of most ministers.

However, North Carolina College of Theology has been able to secure full accreditation through Transworld Accrediting Commission International (inquiries, please write: Transworld Accrediting Commission International, 231 E. Alessandro Blvd, Suite A-210, Riverside, CA 92508 or call 951-901-5586) and through Accrediting Commission International, Inc. (inquiries, please write: Accrediting Commission International, Inc., PO Box 1030, Beebe, AR 72012). We have been able to secure these private accreditations and keep tuition costs at a minimum. We are proud to be associated with these accrediting institutions for Christian schools and colleges in the United States and abroad.

NCCT is a member and independent subsidiary of the Accrediting Commission International, Inc. This accrediting association is not formally recognized by the U.S. Department of Education, and NCCT has chosen not to be affiliated with any state or federal governmental agency. NCCT operates legally as an exempt educational institution in and out of the state of North Carolina.

VERY IMPORTANT

Degree programs of study offered by North Carolina College of Theology have been declared by the appropriate state authority exempt from the requirements for licensure, under provisions of North Carolina General Statutes Section (G.S.) 116-15 (d) for exemption from licensure with respect to religious education. Exemption from licensure is not based upon assessment of program quality under established licensing standards.

NCCT LIFE-EARNED Degrees are identical to the degrees that are issued to students who graduate from the Satellite Extension Program or "Individual Study Program". Benefits of Completing Your Education Through Distance Learning

(Individual Study Program)

Education through Distance Learning has been a part of the American educational system for more than 200 years. During that time, Distance Learning courses have worked well for millions of graduates. Many successful graduates have found Distance Learning to be their best option for learning.

Distance Learning Lets You Set Your Own Pace

You are encouraged to spend as much time as you need to fully understand any complex material. If you progress quickly through a course, you do not have to wait for the slowest class members to catch up. You set your own pace; others don't impose their pace upon you.

Distance Learning Gives You the Opportunity to Concentrate on Important Subjects

Whenever a subject fascinates you, you may spend extra time on it. You are not rushed through because the class must move on at a different pace.

Distance Learning Is A Time Saver

Your schedule is your own. You study around your existing schedule, whenever you desire. You can improve your time use, rather than disrupt your time use. In addition, the programs come directly to your home. Study begins at your discretion. It requires no travel time. What could be more convenient?

Distance Learning Is Fair to Every Student

No grading curve is established to keep grades evenly distributed in the class. You don't get penalized if others receive high grades. You don't have to hope that others do poorly to assure your own good grades. You will get exactly what you earn, fairly. No factors other than your own performance, course by course, determine your success in this program.

Distance Learning Does Not Abandon the Student Who Needs Help

Most importantly, you are not left alone to complete your program. When you need it, you can get individualized help in your studies simply by writing, calling, or sending email to the school.

General Information

Statement of Purpose

NCCT, as a Spirit-filled evangelical community, is dedicated to the preparation of men and women for effective, Spirit-filled leadership and Christ-like servant-hood in the church, in the marketplace, and in the world.

Mission

As a Spirit-filled institution designed to equip men and women for effective and Godly leadership, NCCT is established to train Christian servants who will become spiritually vibrant, Biblically strong, theologically balanced, Spirit-empowered, ministry-equipped, and culturally sensitive. The college seeks to integrate Biblical and theological training with practical skills essential for effective witness and ministry and to provide a scriptural balance of:

- Sound theology with spiritual passion,
- Biblical exposition with prophetic insight,
- Patience in tribulation with expectation of the miraculous,
- Pastoral sensitivity with evangelistic fervor,
- Commitment to character with a quest for the charismata,
- Kingdom growth with personal maturity.

Seeking to prepare men and women called by God for Christian servant-hood and to rekindle and renew those already serving the Body of Christ, NCCT shares the responsibility with the local church to raise up spiritual leaders to hear the voice of God, to communicate the Gospel with vitality, to lead with authority, to minister with compassion, and to convey the resurrection power of hope with conviction.

Institutional Objectives

To fulfill its purpose, NCCT is committed to:

- Provide instruction, nurture, and enrichment for personal and professional development within a Spirit-filled ecumenical ethos.

- Instill recognition of the authority of Scripture in all areas of life and provide a solid knowledge of the Bible.
- Encourage development of a Biblical and balanced Christian theology.
- Increase awareness and appreciation of the heritage of the Christian community and the Spirit-filled community of faith, in particular.
- Equip students with the basic skills for ministry and evangelism.
- Cultivate a spirit of thoughtful inquiry and objective discernment in the quest for knowledge and truth.
- Enhance spiritual development by encouraging students in personal prayer and spiritual disciplines.
- Increase students' Biblical knowledge of moral and ethical standards and encourage a lifestyle based upon Scripture.
- Prepare students for servant-hood in the Church and community with sensitivity to the rich diversity and varied needs of the world.
- Make personal and professional development possible for adult learners through quality educational delivery systems.
- Stimulate awareness for the need of continuous lifelong personal and professional development and provide such opportunities.

Philosophy

NCCT recognizes the primacy of the spiritual truth revealed in the Bible and incarnate in Jesus Christ and acknowledges that all truth, wherever it is found, is of God. All truth finds its unity in God. NCCT also recognizes the role of the Holy Spirit in interpreting God's truth in accordance with the words of the Lord Jesus Christ, who instructed His disciples that "when He, the Spirit of Truth comes, He will guide you into all truth". (John 16:13).

NCCT recognizes that the Father has shown us truth through Christ in nature, history, and above all, in Scripture. Thus the Bible, as the authoritative Word of God, is central in the quest for knowledge. Its principles and precepts are integrated throughout NCCT's curriculum and are foundational in the school's basic philosophy of education.

*NCCT had a great friend who has gone home to be with the Lord.
It was an honor for Dr. Cook to have known Dr. G. E. Patterson.
The Church world will miss this great Man of God.*
